GREY: HOSTING

11 May 2016

Tomorrow morning we will embark on our trip to Port Elizabeth. For some boys this will be an adventure of a lifetime. For many of our younger boys this will be the first time that they sleep in the homes of host parents. This may not be their own home, but rest assured that the host parents will accommodate all your son's needs. Boys are generally hosted in pairs and they get over their initial trepidation quite quickly. The advent of cell phones and direct contact has changed the nature in hosting in that some parents expect a running commentary of every aspect of what is happening. I would appeal to you not to be unreasonable in your expectations and allow your son this "rite of passage" and growth experience.

GREY: UNIFORM

Boys will travel in school tracksuits or uniforms. If any parent is taking a younger sibling or one not participating in sport, please note that all Wynberg Boys are expected to wear school uniforms whilst at Grey.

GREY: TIMES

All boys travelling on the busses are expected to be at school at 05h45 tomorrow morning. No excuses! If you are late we will have to leave, as we are time bound. Boys have been allocated busses and will depart from either Aliwal Road or Cavan Road. Please check your son's bus card to ensure where to drop him off. Please go directly to the busses for those on the Cavan Road busses. I have done many trips with schools and always warn parents against packing in too many unhealthy sweet items for the trip, as your son will consume it all before 09h00 and be nauseous by 12h00. Pack what you normally would for school lunches and avoid sugary and fizzy drinks. Do not send energy drinks or bars with your son.

GREY: TRAVELLING

11 May 2016

Parents who are travelling to Port Elizabeth and having their sons stay with them need to be at Grey by the time the busses arrive. Please see programme. On Sunday all busses will drop boys off in Aliwal Road. Please note that Monday is a normal school day. We are looking forward to a wonderful weekend of sport, camaraderie and friendship. For those parents driving, please drive safely.

DRAMA CLUB

11 May 2016

On Thursday, 21 April, the Drama Club attended the first segment of the Schools' Shakespeare Festival. 72 children, families and teachers attended this wonderful event organised by Mrs Kseniya Filanova-Bruton.....It was a fantastic display of schools theatre and an eye-opener for the boys. In preparation for our performance at the Artscape on 4 June, the cast attended a workshop at the Artscape on Thursday, 5 May, which gave them a chance to meet other schools, visit the space where they will be performing and explore different aspects of Macbeth, such as staging, language and group dynamic.
